THE HON'BLE MR JUSTICE RAMESH RANGANATHAN

WRIT APPEAL NO.1431 of 2004

JUDGMENT: (Per the Hon'ble Mr Justice Ramesh Ranganathan)

After arguing for a considerable length of time, Sri V.Jagapathi, learned counsel for the appellant, would submit that since the appellant has already filed a representation to the Chairman of the TTD Board, it would suffice, if the respondents were directed to consider the representation of the appellant without being influenced by the observations made by the learned Single Judge in the order under appeal. Learned counsel would seek an opportunity for the appellant to submit a fresh representation furnishing all details as to why his services should have been continued as an Assistant instead of as a Binder in the TTD Press.

Sri T.Harinath Gupta, learned Standing Counsel for the respondent, would submit that in case such a representation was submitted by the appellant, the respondents would consider the same in accordance with law.

The Writ Appeal is accordingly disposed of giving liberty to the appellant to submit a detailed representation to the respondents within two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. In case, a representation is submitted, within the time stipulated, the respondent shall consider the same and pass orders thereupon in accordance with law, without being influenced by the order passed in W.P.No.20159 of 1993 dated 12.08.2004, within a period of three months from the date of receipt of such representation. No costs.
